PALFINGER presented its financial figures for 2025 at the beginning of March. In a changing world, the company achieved its third-best result ever. And with its Strategy 2030+, the global specialist in crane and lifting solutions is proactively addressing future challenges. Employees are central to long-term success – and to attract dedicated professionals, PALFINGER invites the public to PALFINGER World in Lengau for an exciting job event that provides exclusive company insights.

Maria Koller, CHRO at PALFINGER, says, “For me personally, one thing is clear: we expect a lot from our teams, but we also invest in them. Our strength comes from bringing together people with different backgrounds, experiences and perspectives. Real performance happens when people take responsibility together and challenge each other constructively. That's how innovation and sustainable success are built.”

Face-to-face discussion and insights into the company

The event offers direct conversations with employees and insights into a wide range of career and professional development paths. Visitors can explore concrete job opportunities and establish initial contacts for a future career at PALFINGER.

The job event will take place on March 20 from 2 p.m. to 7 p.m. at PALFINGER World (Kapellenstraße 18, 5211 Lengau). It is aimed at skilled professionals, apprentices, and anyone planning their next career move. Admission is free and no registration is required.

A strong employer in the region

As one of the largest employers in the region, PALFINGER offers long-term professional prospects and sustainable development opportunities, both at local and international level. The company is continuously seeking motivated and qualified people who want to help shape its future. “We’re actively hiring, but we offer more than jobs. We offer the chance to directly shape the future of a global manufacturing and technology company. This is what makes PALFINGER a strong and leading employer not only in our region, but around the world.”
